Internationalization and Employability in Higher EducationOct 21 2019 Providing an analysis of the relationship between Internationalization and Employability in Higher Education, this book considers the perspectives of both students and employers to illustrate how to reach positive employment outcomes for all stakeholders. Through a wide range of international case studies, it delivers some key messages, including: The articulation of the link between internationalization and employability; The need for higher education institutions to communicate the benefits of an internationalized higher education beyond the academy; The need to address equity of graduate outcomes through enhanced internationalization at home; The impact of immigration policy on national benefits from internationalization of higher education; International study as a route to employability for migration purposes and building knowledge-based economies. Considering the skills developed by students through mobility experiences, while exploring the need for enhanced internationalization of the curriculum at home, Internationalization and Employability in Higher Education will be a key resource for any higher education policy makers or university staff associated with careers, employment, and integrated learning. It contains important messages for employers and recruiters.
Phrase Based Amharic News Text ClassificationApr 19 2022 The recent growth of ICT infrastructure in Ethiopia is resulting in an exponential increase of digital information in local languages including Amharic. Huge volumes of data are available in Amharic which is observed on the growing online newspapers, websites, and digital storage's of Ethiopian News Agency. To tackle these news text management problems, a number of researches have been conducted on automatic processing of Amharic news text using bag-of-words feature representation. However, using single words as features could result in losing the intended meaning when a concept is created from two or more sequential words. Thus, in order to maintain this concept, a phrase based approach (using bigrams and trigrams) has been proposed and implemented in this research.The result shows that using bigram phrases, the best accuracy (95.3%) has been obtained at four news categories, followed by (81.3%)for eight categories and (72.01%) for twelve categories. On the other hand, for trigram phrase structures, the best accuracy was(72.9%)four news categories, followed by 69.7% for eight categories and 56.4% for twelve categories. Thus, bigrams shows better accuracy than trigrams.
Public Administration in EthiopiaDec 03 2020 Building an effective, inclusive, and accountable public administration has become a major point of attention for policymakers and academics in Ethiopia who want to realise sustainable development. This first book on Ethiopian Public Administration is written by Ethiopian academics and practitioner-academics and builds on PhD studies and conference papers, including studies presented at the meetings of the Ethiopian Public Administration Association (EPAA), established in 2016. Public Administration in Ethiopia presents a wide range of timely issues in four thematic parts: Governance, Human Resources, Performance and Quality, and Governance of Policies. Each of the individual chapters in this volume contributes in a different way to the overarching research questions: How can we describe and explain the contexts, the processes and the post-1990 politico-administrative reforms in Ethiopia? And what are the implications for sustainable development? This book essential for students, practitioners, and theorists interested in public administration, public policy, and sustainable developm Moreover, the volume is a valuable stepping stone for PA teaching and PA research in Ethiopia.

Automatic Categorization Of Amharic News Text Sep 15 2021 Currently news items subject classification in Ethiopia is done manu by journalists which is time consuming task (although they are using computer system to store and dispatch information). T experimented the application of machine learning techniques to automatic categorization of Amharic news items. Machine lea techniques, Naive Bayes and k Nearest Neighbor classifiers, were used to categorize the Amharic news items. 11, 024 news used to do this research. To come up with good results text preparation and per-processing was done. Stop-word and word 3 or less documents were removed from the collection. Thirty-three percent of the data was used for testing purposes. The research indicated that such classifiers are applicable to automatically classify Amharic news items. However, the classifiers when the categories contain almost evenly distributed news items. The best result obtained is by the naive Bayes. The result research is promising. Nevertheless, additional works are recommended in order to come up with good result."

New Opportunities for Sentiment Analysis and Information Processing Aug 11 2021 Multinational organizations have begun to realize that sentiment mining plays an important role for decision making and market strategy. The revolutionary growth of digital n not only changes the market game, but also brings forth new opportunities for skilled professionals and expertise. Currently, technologies are rapidly changing, and artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning are contributing as game-changing technologies. These are not only trending but are also increasingly popular among data scientists and data analysts. New Opp for Sentiment Analysis and Information Processing provides interdisciplinary research in information retrieval and sentiment a including studies on extracting sentiments from textual data, sentiment visualization-based dimensionality reduction for mult features, and deep learning-based multi-domain sentiment extraction. The book also optimizes techniques used for sentiment identification and examines applications of sentiment analysis and emotion detection. Covering such topics as communication networks, natural language processing, and semantic analysis, this book is essential for data scientists, data analysts, IT spe scientists, researchers, academicians, and students.

Reconfiguring Ethiopia: The Politics of Authoritarian Reform May 20 2022 This book takes stock of political reform in Ethiopia and the transformation of Ethiopian society since the adoption of multi-party politics and ethnic federalism in 1991. Decentraliza attempted democratization via ethno-national representation, and partial economic liberalization have reconfigured Ethiopian s and state in the past two decades. Yet, as the contributors to this volume demonstrate, 'democracy' in Ethiopia has not cha authority structures and the culture of centralist decision-making of the past. The political system is tightly engineered and from top to bottom by the ruling Ethiopian Peoples' Revolutionary Democratic Front (EPRDF). Navigating between its 1991 announcements to democratise the country and its aversion to power-sharing, the EPRDF has established a de facto one-pa enjoys considerable international support. This ruling party has embarked upon a technocratic 'developmental state' trajector ostensibly aimed at 'depoliticizing' national policy and delegitimizing alternative courses. The contributors analyze the dynamic authoritarian state-building, political ethnicity, electoral politics and state-society relations that have marked the Ethiopian po the downfall of the socialist Derg regime. Chapters on ethnic federalism, 'revolutionary democracy', opposition parties, the pr judiciary, state-religion, and state-foreign donor relations provide the most comprehensive and thought-provoking review of contemporary Ethiopian national politics to date. This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studi
